MESSAGE FROM THE MAESTRO

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Season 14 of the Johns Creek Symphony Orchestra!

As I write this letter of greeting to you, we all continue to face an uncertain future on many fronts. The outbreak of COVID-19 several months ago has taken an unfathomable toll on our country as well as globally. Among many industries negatively affected by the devastating pandemic, the performing arts sector and the entire entertainment business have almost totally disappeared from the American landscape.

The JCSO Board of Directors had its busiest summer ever with multiple meetings devoted to developing strategies designed to keep us in business. Although many arts organizations, particularly symphony orchestras, have cancelled or postponed portions of their upcoming seasons, JCSO is moving forward with a modest season, which includes a combination of virtual performances and live concerts with strict capacity limits and many additional safety measures in place.

You can expect the same high level of artistry as our musicians get back to doing what they love and are trained to do, the presentation of beautiful music! Our three subscription concerts feature outstanding guest artists, violinist Charles Yang and tenor Timothy Miller. In addition to the "season," JCSO will be presenting several events via the internet. Stay tuned! Those details will be announced as plans are finalized.

I want to express the deep appreciation of our musicians, staff, and Board of Directors for your continuing support of the JCSO. You are our valued partners as we look to a bright future of bringing great music to our outstanding community.

Sincerely

J. Wayne Baughman
Music Director/Conductor

MEET THE MAESTRO

JCSO Music Director and Conductor J. Wayne Baughman studied choral and orchestral conducting, earning undergraduate and graduate degrees in music education from the University of Alabama, as well as advanced studies in conducting at the University of Michigan.

Upon his arrival in Atlanta in 1974, Maestro Baughman immediately became involved with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and Choruses, and for 25 years he was a frequent vocal soloist, chorus member, and rehearsal conductor under the guidance of the late Robert Shaw. Well-known for his oratorio performances as bass soloist, he collaborated with Maestro Shaw on numerous performance projects, including the Mozart Requiem Mass,

J.S. Bach's St. John Passion, and Handel's Messiah. In 1990, as bass soloist, Maestro Baughman shared the honor of a Grammy Award for the Telarc recording of Belshazzar's Feast (Walton) and Chichester Psalms (Bernstein) with Robert Shaw and the ASO.

Maestro Baughman has held numerous academic and church music conducting positions in a career spanning more than 50 years. In addition to his work with the Johns Creek Symphony Orchestra he serves as Vice-President of the Cultural Arts Alliance at Johns Creek and chairs the Legacy Center Task Force.

ABOUT THE JOHNS CREEK SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Now in its 14th season, the Johns Creek Symphony Orchestra is Metro Atlanta's only fully-professional, part-time symphonic orchestra, made up of professional musicians from all over the greater metro Atlanta area.

The mission of the Johns Creek Symphony Orchestra is to enhance the quality of life for Johns Creek and north Metro Atlanta residents through the presentation of high-quality performances, educational and other outreach programs that reflect the cultural diversity of the community.
